Carnival Week in St. Louis. Sr. Louis, October 10.-The week just closed has been one of the most notable in the history of St. Louis The weather has been all that could be desired, and the in flux of visitors correspondingly large, in fact the facilities for their entertainment has been taxed to the utmost. No one has lacked for means of enjoyment, for there has really been a surfeit of entertaining features. The great Fair, of course, has occupied a large share of the attention of the rural visitors, and it has been fully worthy all they bestowed upon it, for St. Louis never had a better fair in her history. The improvements made in seen to take several drinks of spirits from a the grounds and the increased facilities for the care and exhibition of stock have at Jefferson City that the matter had been called forth many warm compliments, while the new buildings for individual displays have added very much to the general attractiveness of the grounds. Very few who have been here have gone away without paying a visit to the Exposition, the attendance at which has been something enormous, and, together with the added attraction of Gilmore's Band has evoked a degree of enthusiasm for S. Louis enterprise highly gratifying to its projectors. The Greatest Fire the Present Generation of Londoners Have Seen-Fifteen Million Dollar's Worth of Property Gone Up it Smoke - The Disadvantages of Iron in Large Buildings.

LONDON, October 8 .- One of the most lisastrous conflagrations that has occurred in this city in a number of years broke out at five o'clock this morning in the Charter House buildings, Aldersgate Street, and is still burning though partially under control. Fire spread with marvelous rapidity, and in less than four hours after it had broken out thirteen of eight-story houses compristhe property were destroyed. The buildings were occupied by stores, mostly of fancy goods and toy emporiums. In one of the buildings destroyed was located a lage printing establishment. Another of the buildthe strenuous efforts of the firemen, the structure was saved from total destruction. The firemen experienced great difficulty in throwing streams on the upper stories because of a lack of the water pressure. Many of them had narrow escapes from death from falling walls, etc. It is estimated that the loss will reach £3,000,000. LONDON, October 9.—The fire in Aldersgate street yesterday morning, which destroyed the Charter House cuit, C. T. Wallace; Pierce City, E. H. Mor-rison; Sarcox e Circuit, L. J. Keiler; Webb City and Carterville; J. D. Wood; Carthage, buildings, was the biggest conflagration which has occurred in London within the memory of the present generation. The flames spread with phenomenal rapidity, and the firemen attributed this fact to the excessive number of iron girders and posts used in the chief buildings. This iron work expanded and twisted into all manner of shapes, opening great cracks in the floors and walls, through which the flames rushed furiously. Captain Shaw, the chief officer of the fire brigade, is strongly opposed to the use of iron for architectural purposes, and is making a special report on yesterday's disaster, with the view of urging builders to be more sparing in the use of iron. The origin of the fire is unknown. The row was mostly occupied by faucy goods dealers, furriers, toysters and printng offices. One bank was in the building. This institution wer the only one that escaped being burnet completely out. It was badly damaged, but not destroyed. The firemen had great trouble in getting the streams from the engines to play on the upper stories of the build-

A DOUBLE LIFE.

Ionathan Hughes, the Camp-Meeting Exhorter and Counterfeiter, Convicted for His Doings in the Latter Role.

TRENTON, N. J., October 8.-Jonathan Hughes was tried in the Federal Court to-day on an indictment charging him with manufacturing and passing counterfeit silver money in Elmer, Cumberland County. Secret Service Officer Bell arrested him at the camp-meeting at Pittman Grove last August. The prisoner led a double life, that of a Christian, as well as a coun erfeiter. On the night of the arrest, he offered to show the detective where his tools were secreted. He supposed the officer Monday last he left the city knew, and that it would be a good thing hurriedly, giving as a reason that for him when brought into court to have he had to go to New York it shown that he surrendered his implements. The officer, carrying a lantern, went into the woods skirting the town office and gave the authorities no notice with him, and in the shade of a tree beneath a pile of leaves, discovered the tools. The prisoner was convicted and when arraigned for sentence fell in a fit at the Judge's feet. Two physicians worked with him several hours before he could be removed. Sentence will be im-

The St. Louis Street-Car Men's Strike Develops Desultory Rioting In Attempts to Stop Traffic On the Lines-One Man Shot Dead By a Policeman, a Number of Other Casualties, and Plenty of Wrecked

SERIOUS TIMES.

Sr. Louis, Mo., October 9 .- This city is in a whirlpool of excitement over the strike of the street car employes, and mobs assemble, work their deeds of destruction and death, and dissolve again with great rapidity, excitement and curiosity prompting men, women and children without direct interest in the issues at stake to rush hither and thither with the insane actors in the day's wild scenes. Among the more serious events transpiring with the quick successiveness. of a rapidly revolving kaleidoscope may be noticed briefly: Serious riots on O'Fallon street and Cass avenue; at the Twafth street bridge; on Chouteau and Washington avenues; at Sixth and Locust streets and along Pine Street; an old conductor on the Union Line reported killed, and several drivers and conductors very seriously hurt; cars wrecked and boxes rifled in various parts of the city, and a striker shot dead Eleventh and Hickory streets, while the long list of ourrages is continually grow-

The police has proved itself totally unable to cope with the mob, and the Board is now in session discussing the advisability of calling out the militia. A business men's meeting, summoned by the following circular, is now in session, with a large attendance: ST. LOUIS, MO., October 8, 1885.

DEAR SIR: You are invited to attend a meeting of merchants at the Mercantile Club at 4 p. m. sharp. Friday, 9th inst., to consider the street railroad strike and devise a proper remedy. The city is suffering irreparable damage and the blockade should be raised by prompt action of some kind.

B. THOMSON, The following incidents are given as samples of others transpiring in many parts of the city:

TWO CHOUTEAU AVENUE CARS WRECKED. Shortly before noon to-day trouble broke out almost simultaneously on the People's Line and on the Union Depot Line. A gang of men, whom the officers declared were street car men, as they recognized their faces, started in to wreck the People's Line at Fourth and Chouteau avenue. As near as could be estimated before the crowd of spectators assembled there were fully thirty or forty men in the wrecking force. The first assault was made on car No. 17, which was running down town with a load of passengers. The men called to the passengers to get out. Several jumped on the front | platform, and, striking the driver two or three times, threw him off the car, slipped the pin out and started the horses on a full run. Two or three others gave the conductor the same treatment. This was accomplished in a brief space, and before the people knew what was up the car was lifted clear and was tossed over on one side, crosswise the two tracks, completely blocking the way. The men did not wait, but as soon as the car was on its side and the register had been smashed, they rushed west on Chouteau avenue.

AT EIGHTH STREET

the gang met car No. 1 and put it through the same course of treatment with a liberal dose thrown in for the driver and conductor. The passengers scarcely had time to get out before the car was on its side. The driver and conductor in both instances skipped away as soon as they could get of the clutches of the wreckers. Officers Chase and Datzman were on Fourth street and saw car No. 17 thrown over, but the men were gone before they reached the car. They went in pursuit and reached Eighth street just as the other car was being wrecked. Officer Chase was caught by several ring-leaders and was held firmly so that he could do nothing, so he says. Officer Datzman caught one of the men and was struggling with him, when he was struck back of the left ear by a rock. He was knocked to his knees and the man freed himself and escaped. The men started off west. At this moment Sergeaut Landers and Officers Scully, Sullin, Treadway and Karl reached Chouteau avenue in a patrol wagon and gave chase. They succeeded in capturing three of the Chouteau avenue gang and one of the Twelfth street gang under the Fourteenth street bridge. Superintendent Shea passed the spot in his buggy a few minutes after the occurrence, and securing teams and men had the cars righted and driven to the stables. The street was packed by a howling mob, and it was fully half an hour before it was cleared. VALUABLE SCALPS.

High Game For the Arizonians-Apach Scalps Commanding a Premium of $500

-The Old Pioneers On a Big Hunt. DEMING, TEX., October 9 .- Reports come in from all parts of Arizona that the old pioneers of that Territory, tempted by the reward of $500 for Indian scalps made by several counties in Arizona, have started out on a hunt for red. skins, with a view of obtaining their scalps. They think this is the most practicable method yet suggested of forever ending the Apache Indians' war. The $250 is merely incidental to the hunt; it pays for the whisky and tobacco used in camp. It is believed several New Mexican cities and countles will adopt this plan of exterminating the The fight at Gallerp's ranch Wednesday has thoroughly aroused Western New Mexico, and additional troops besides the squad from Albuquerque which went to the ranch, are now being held in readiness at El Paso, Tex. The Indians are roaming about in small bands, and this enables them to commit crimes and escape or hide much easier than when they proceed in large bands. U. S. Grant Jr. Indiguant.

NEW YORK, October 9.-Mr. U. S. Grant, Jr., was seen at his farm, four miles from Purdy's Station, on the Harlem Railroad, by a reporter. After carefully reading Ward's remarkable statement in the morning's Herald, he said: "I have nothing further to say about this man. I am far from surprised that he should insiduously attempt to besmirch the name of the family that he so treacherously ruined. Should Ward escape a felon's fate, it would then perhaps be time for me to take more active steps."
